WEDNESDAY, MAY 14. 1755.

Madrid, April 26. N. S.

THE Court is gone to Aranjuez, whether the foreign Ministers are also repaired. The Conferences concerning the present Juncture of Affairs, are more frequent than ever, and hardly a Day passes but some Courier is dispatched or arrives. The Marquis de Capicelatro, Ambassador at the Court of Portugal, returned on Thursday last from Lisbon, and went immediately to Aranjuez to make his Report to the King, of what passed there with Regard to the Imprisonment of his Domesticks. The Differences with the Court of Lisbon are still in the same Situation, and our Troops continue to file off towards the Frontiers of Portugal; they are said to amount to above 20,000 Men. We learn from Cadiz, that, on the 19th Instant, a Ship arrived there from Caragues, having on board 1,200,000lb. of Cocoa, some Tobacco, Hides, and Money. Don John de Hourlier was declared Intendant of Estramadura, and of his Majesty's Army in that Province. The King has disposed of divers vacant military Employments; and his Majesty has conferred the Title of Castile upon Don Dominico Lopes del Pozo. Don John Perez de la Puente, Member of the King's Council, died here the 23d, aged 74 Years. We are advised from Lisbon, that, on the 27th of February last, the Moors had raised the Blockade of the City of Mazagam in Africa; and set Fire to all their Works; and that the next Day the Alcaide of Azamor, their General, had an Interview with the Governor of Mazagam, in which they agreed upon the principal Articles for a Truce; and that among other Things it had been stipulated, that the Portuguese Slaves should be restored without a Ransom.

Warsaw, April 28 N. S. The Court left the Castle on Friday last, to go and reside at the Royal Palace in the Suburbs called Cracow. General Mier arrived here the 24th of this Month, and had the same Day a private Audience of his Majesty. He was accompanied by General Wodzicki, the Castellan of Polonez, and 19 Deputies of the Crown Army. These latter had also Audience of the King this Day, to assure his Majesty of the Submission and Fidelity of the Troops, and to thank him for his Goodness in causing half a Year's Pay to be paid to the Army. They besought the King at the same time, to confer upon the Palatine of Kiow the Post of Regimentary-General of the Crown, and added their humble Instances, that his Majesty would vouchsafe to use his good Offices with the Czarina, to obtain the Primate's being forthwith set at Liberty. The Bishop of Cracow answered them in the King's Name, and his Majesty admitted them to kiss his Hand. The Polish Companies, who, with the Castellan of Czersk, submitted to the King, are gone to Warcka, where they have received three Months Pay. Part of the new raised Companies have only been broke, and sent home to their respective Palatinates; but 'tis thought the rest will be retained, to be put upon the old Establishment of the Crown. Count Sapicha, Secretary of Lithuania set out this Day for that Province. 'Tis said an Account of a Letter written by the Starost of Wilna to the Court, to impart to them the good Dispositions of the Army of Lithuania to submit to the King, in Case his Majesty was pleased to send Committaries to treat with them. The said Count is charged with the necessary Instructions for that Purpose, and he is ordered to act in Concert with the Bishop of Warmia. The Palatine of Kiow, the great Marshal of the Crown, and the Bishop of Cujavia, are expected here To-morrow; as are also soon the Prince Wisnowieski, Castellan of Cracow, and the Prince of Radzwil; and 'tis thought, that immediately after their Arrival, the projected Great Council will take Effect. As there is little Appearance that the General Dyet of Pacification can be summoned before September next, the Russian Troops will hardly quit the Kingdom before that Time. Some Deputies of three Provinces of this Kingdom were the Day before Yesterday with the Field Marshal Count Munich, to make Remonstrances to him concerning the Quarters of the Russian Troops; but the Answer given them by that General is not known. The Palatine of Culm, and the Czernisk Bilinski, accompanied by several Deputies, set out Yesterday for Lublin, to open the Tribunal of the Kingdom; and Count Munich has sent Orders to General Sagreski to march from thence with his Troops, to leave an entire Liberty to the Sessions of that Tribunal. We learn, that the Deputies of the Palatinates of Volhinia and Czernichow, and those of the Districts of Lemberg and Chelm, are already arrived at Lublin. The Duke of Weissenfels is expected here every Moment from Thorn. 'Tis said that his Negotiations with the Primate have proved abortive. 'Tis written from Koningsberg, that the Troops under the Regimentary Pociety, and the Palatine of Volhinia, after having quitted the Bishoprick of Warmia, had divided themselves into three Bodies, with the Design, as 'tis believed, to re enter Poland and Lithuania. 'Tis added, that, according to a Report, those Troops had defeated a Detachment of Saxons, commanded by Lieutenant Colonel Haveman, and taken from them 2 Pieces of Cannon.
